THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.

VOL. VI.—No. 86. PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1866. DOUBLE SHEET—THREE CENTS.

HELMBOLD'S "HIGHLY CONCENTRATED" COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU.

A positive and specific remedy for diseases of the BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS. This medicine increases the powers of digestion, and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the matter of calcareous deposits and all unnatural enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for men, women, and children.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,

For weakness, attended with the following symptoms:—

Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Inness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruptions of the Face, Universal Lassitude, Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on (which this Medicine invariably removes) soon follow—

FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS, ETC.,

in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases."

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION?

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the insane asylums and the melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

The Constitution, once affected by organic weakness, requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT OF BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

In affections peculiar to Females the EXTRACT BUCHU is unequalled by any other remedy, and for all complaints incident to the sex or in the decline or change of life See symptoms above. No family should be without it.

Take no Balsam, Mercury or unpleasant medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

AND

IMPROVED ROSE WASH,

Cures these diseases in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change of diet, no inconvenience, and NO EXPOSURE.

USE HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For all affections and diseases of these organs, whether EXISTING IN MALE OR FEMALE.

From whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. Diseases of these organs require the aid of a diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS THE GREAT DIURETIC, and it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!

HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the Blood and removing all chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetter, Erysipelas, and all scaly Eruptions of the Skin,

AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH,

An excellent Lotion, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU and SARSAPARILLA, in such diseases as recommended. Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines. Also, explicit directions for use, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upwards of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The Proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

The Science of Medicine, like the Doric column, stands simple, pure, majestic, having Fact for its basis, Induction for its pillar, and Truth alone for its Capital.

My Extract Sarsaparilla is a Blood Purifier; my Extract Buchu is a Diuretic, and will act as such in all cases.

Both are prepared on purely scientific principles—in vacuo—and are the most active of either that can be made. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set forth in the following works:—

The Vote of 1865.

The vote of Philadelphia last fall was for Auditor-General:—

General Hartranft (Rep.).....49,859
Colonel Davis (Dem.).....39 830
Republican majority.....10,029

THE STATE.

General Geary's Majority.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.]

HARRISBURG, October 10.—Returns received here show that Geary has carried the State by nearly 20,000 majority. The entire vote will exceed 600,000.

The Republican Gains.

The Republicans have small gains in the following counties:—Armstrong, Beaver, Blair, Bucks, Berks, Bedford, Chester, Crawford, Carbon, Franklin, Indiana, Lehigh, Lycoming, Lancaster, Schuylkill, Union, and Westmoreland. The Democratic gains are few and light, except in the large cities.

Congressmen Elected.

First District—Samuel J. Randall, Democrat, majority 5683

Second—Charles O'Neill, Republican, maj. 3224.

Third—Leonard Myers, Republican, majority about 12:0.

Fourth—William D. Kelley, Republican, majority 2033.

Fifth—Caleb N. Taylor, Republican, majority about 400.

Sixth—B M. Boyer, Democrat.

Seventh—John M. Broomall, Republican.

Eighth—J. Lawrence Getz, War Democrat.

Ninth—Thaddeus Stevens, Republican.

Tenth—H. L. Cake, Republican.

Twelfth—J. Archbald, Republican.

Thirteenth—N. Mercur, Republican.

Fourteenth—H. F. Miller, Republican.

Fifteenth—A. J. Glossbrenner, Democrat.

Sixteenth—W. H. Koontz, Republican.

Seventeenth—D. J. Worrell, Republican.

Eighteenth—S. T. Wilson, Republican.

Nineteenth—G. W. Schofield, Republican.

Twentieth—D A. Finney, Republican.

Twenty-first—John Covode, Republican.

Twenty second—John K. Moorhead Republican.

Twenty-third—Thomas Williams, Republican.

Twenty-fourth—T. Lawrence, Republican.

State Legislature.

First District—General McCandless, Democrat, is elected Senator over Jeremiah Nichols by a majority of 1830.

ASSEMBLY.

The following are the members of the Legislature reported elected, so far as is known:—

1. George W. Ghegan, R.
2. Wm S. Gregory, D.
3. Samuel Josephs, D.
4. William Watt, R.
5. William B. Mood, D.
6. James Freeborn, R.
7. James Subers, R.
8. James N. Kerns, R.
9. Geo. A. Quigley, D.
10. Elisha W. Davis, R.
11. W. J. Donoghue, R.
12. Alexander Adaire, R.
13. Unknown.
14. Unknown.
15. George De Haven, R.
16. David Wallace, R.
17. Unknown.
18. James N. Marks, R.

There is a gain of two members here for the Democrats.

The State Legislature is largely Republican, and this ensures the election of a radical Republican to the United States Senate, in place of Hon. Edgar Cowan, Johnson Democrat.

The State Vote of 1865.

In 1865 General Hartranft, the Union candidate for Auditor-General, received 288,400 votes, which was a majority of 22,660 over his opponent, Colonel W. W. H. Davis. In the memorable Presidential contest of 1864, Mr. Lincoln received 296,391 votes, a majority of 20,031 over General McClellan, who went before the people on the declaration that the war was a failure. In 1863, at the Gubernatorial contest, Andrew G. Curtin polled 269 496 votes, a majority of 15 325 over George W. Woodward, the candidate of the sympathizers with treason, and this, too, when over two hundred thousand of her sons had gone forth to uphold the flag of their country on the battle-field, and before they had been permitted to exercise the elective franchise while in the field.

Progress of the Vote in all the Gubernatorial Contests.

The following interesting table shows the result of the vote for Governor of Pennsylvania, from the first contest in 1790 to the present time:—

OHIO.

GREAT REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, October 9.—Election returns as far as heard from indicate that fifteen Union Congressmen are elected certain, and three more probably. The gain on the Union State ticket is about 50,000.

This gives the entire Republican ticket a majority of at least 80,000, and elects eighteen Congressmen—a gain of two Congressmen since the last election.

The Real Issue Before the American People—The Future Governing Party of the Country.

From the Herald.

In the excitement and confusion of ideas produced by the political and party contests carried on all over the country, the great underlying question is hardly realized or recognized. Men are apt to think that the point on which the elections turn is whether the President or Congress is to be sustained, whether the restoration of the seceded States is to be accomplished by Executive will or in accordance with the directions of the national Legislature, and whether the Democratic party is to resume the power which it abused and lost or the Government is to remain in the hands of that party which represents the ideas and policy that prevailed in the terrible contest out of which the nation has so recently emerged. To a certain extent these questions are involved in the present elections but only as collateral or subsidiary questions.

The real issue, which lies deeper than those of the present contest, and which is to take shape and prominency in the next session of Congress and in the elections of two years hence, is, "What party shall have the governing power in this country for the next half-century or more?" The unseemly and undignified personal squabbles between President Johnson and the members of the present Congress are but disgraceful incidents in the politics of the times, and cannot affect, one way or the other, the solution of the great question which we have here indicated.

What, then, is to be the future governing party of the United States? We know what party has governed it, with but few intermissions, for eighty years and more, up to the commencement of the Rebellion; but that party can govern it no more. We know that the ideas of the leading politicians of Eastern Virginia and South Carolina controlled the Government from the days when the Constitution was formed, down to those gloomy days when Buchanan, inspired by them, declared to Congress that there was no power under the Constitution to coerce rebellious States into submission.

With the election of Mr. Lincoln to the Presidency in 1860 the death-knell of that power was tolled. The Southern politicians heard it with prophetic ear, and knew too well what it foreboded. They recognized in it the doom of their old pro-slavery, State-rights ideas, and the growth of a better and stronger and truer system of republican government. Pro-slavery, State-rights democracy, fell in 1860, never to rise again. Driven to desperation, the leaders and adherents of the decayed political faith took up arms, and, with a resolve to govern either in or out of the Union, made a tremendous effort to destroy the life of the nation.

Foiled in that attempt, and doubly defeated on the political field and on the battle-field, they gave up the struggle, and have abandoned, completely and forever, we believe, those dogmas of government which they have been forced to recognize as unfitted for the present age. The Democratic party, therefore, as the representative of those political dogmas, has ceased to exist; and the organization which now assumes that name has hardly anything in common with that party which so long ruled the country.

To say, therefore, that there is a political contest going on between the Republican and the Democratic parties—as these were known up to the overthrow of the Rebellion—would be a misapplication of words. The living cannot fight with the dead. But there is a great contest going on between the representatives of opposing ideas in Congress and among the people. One side represents the principle ve victis—wo to the vanquished—in its extremist and most ruthless form, and advocates general confiscation throughout the late Rebel States, the distribution of their lands among the colored population, the enfranchisement of the blacks, and the disfranchisement of all who took part in the Rebellion, meaning all the white citizens of the South.

Its champions are the remorseless Stevens, the conceited Sumner, and the loud-mouthed, bellowing Butler, the mock hero of Bethel and Fort Fisher, and projector of the famous Dutch Gap canal. The other side, supported by the moderate men of all political parties, and finding adherents even in the Southern States, insists on nothing more than those guarantees for the future which the acts of the past seem to render necessary.

Those guarantees are embodied in the amendments to the Constitution proposed by Congress at its last session, and submitted to the States for ratification. When those amendments are engrafted on the Constitution, as they undoubtedly will be, then will commence the rule of that party which will be the governing party of the future, and under which the strides of this country to greatness and power will outstrip in the last third of this century its wonderful progress in the first two-thirds of it.

We have seen how the political party which embodied the views of the extreme men of the South has been extinguished. We are now to see how the embodiment of the views of the opposite extreme is to share a like fate. New England ideas of government are no more to prevail in this reconstructed republic than are the ideas of Eastern Virginia and South Carolina. The practical common sense of the American people realizes the truth of the old Latin maxim, in medius res tutissimus ibis—that safety lies in the middle course—in moderation. It is neither to extinguish the political life of Southern communities, nor, on the other hand, to restore them to their former power in the control of the Government, that the people of the great middle States, extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific, put out their strength to crush the Rebellion. The people of those middle States are well aware that it was their armies that won the victory, and that they are equally determined that their political doctrines shall rule the country.

The question, as we have said, does not develop itself in the elections now at hand; but it will assume form and dimensions and greatness in the next session of Congress, and particularly in the sessions of the Fortieth Congress, and will come up for final decision in the elections of 1868. What the result will be no observant man can doubt. The extreme political doctrines of New England will be trodden under foot and crushed out of existence just as thoroughly as have been those of the South, and the party which adopts the modern and moderate views of policy will be the governing power of the country for the next half century or more. In other words, the party designated "radicals" will share the fate of the secessionists, and that which is now known by the name of "conservative" will be the controlling party of the future.

Houses for the Poor.

From the Tribune.

Mr. A. T. Stewart, it is said, has offered to expend $1,000,000 in erecting dwellings for the poor of our city, provided the city shall give the ground whereupon to build them. The houses, we infer, are to be leased for whatever rents they will command, and the net income constantly applied to the building of more habitations, carefully adapted to the needs and means of the industrious poor.

The gift is a noble one, and its object most deserving. Wretched habitations are here a fruitful source of vice, crime, disease, and death. There are many more thieves, burglars, drunkards, and lost women in our city than there would be if honest industry were amply supplied with decent, commodious dwellings at reasonable rates.

Our tenement-houses are, for the most part, libels on Christianity and the nineteenth century. They are as inconvenient and unhealthy as they could well be made. They seem calculated to destroy all instincts of modesty, delicacy, decency, and cleanliness. That portion of our workers who can afford to live five to ten miles from their work may be quite comfortably and cheaply housed; but most of the poor whose avocations confine them to the lower half of this island are lodged abominably. Mr. Stewart's philanthropy has taken an excellent direction, and we trust it may serve as an encouragement to others.

We hope, therefore, that he has not determined (as is reported) that his generous gift shall be expended in building small houses for the accommodation of separate families. He might as rationally buy or hire five hundred stores for the transaction of his dry goods business. The great economies which distinguish our age are achieved in an opposite direction. An edifice covering a block 400 by 250 feet, or thereabout, six stories high, with a single entrance from the street, a man and wife keeping the door and supervising everything, with lodgings in the attic for virtuous, industrious single women only at very moderate rates, and all the modern appliances of gas, hot air, hoistways, etc. etc., with a promenade on the roof, a children's play-ground in the centre, and a common sitting and reading-room for all the inmates, would afford comfortable house-room for more people than could be sheltered on a hundred separate city lots at a like cost, while the comforts of the spacious edifice would be immeasurably the greater. We beg Mr. Stewart not to decide this point until he shall have considered plans and estimates (which shall be forthcoming), for an edifice which will afford at once pleasant, commodious homes for at least a thousand persons, suggestion and inducement to capitalists and philanthropists of other cities, and an ornament and honor to this emporium of the New World.

The Amendment and the South.

From the Times.

Sundry journals and public men in the Southern States are beginning to urge the acceptance of the Constitutional amendment, as expedient and wise. It would scarcely be correct to speak of the movement in this direction as general or influential, but the fact that it has been started at all is not without significance. We think a good many prominent and judicious Southern men are really in favor of it, who are as yet unwilling openly to advocate it.

There is one point the South ought to bear in mind:—The only parts of the amendment open to serious objection are temporary in their operation. By changing the ratio of representation their political power is reduced, but only until they find it wise and safe to apply the same qualifications for suffrage to both blacks and whites. Whenever they can put both races on the same footing, and allow both to vote upon the same conditions of education, property, etc., they become entitled to their full representation. In the ordinary course of things, this result must be attained before many years. The same thing is true, to a still greater extent, of the disfranchising clause. It excludes from office certain classes of those who have been active in the Rebellion, but Congress may at any time, by a two-thirds vote, remove this disability. If peace and order again prevail, and matters resume their normal course in the Southern States, but very few years can elapse before Congress will be very glad to remove this disability altogether, and in regard to many Southern men, there is little doubt it would be removed very soon.

The South may very well consider, therefore, whether it would not be wise to accept these temporary inconveniences for the sake of the permanent and substantial advantages to be gained thereby. There is very great danger to the South and to the whole country in keeping this question open for heated and protracted agitation. The condition of every State will become worse and worse with every day of delay. If the contest were closed and the South restored to its proper relations with the Union, the tendency of events would be to pacify and harmonize the country. The South certainly can well afford to make some sacrifices of feeling for the speedy attainment of such results.

Impeachment of the President.

From the World.

The extract from General Butler's speech which was telegraphed from Cincinnati, and published by the city papers on Monday morning, puts the point made by Wendell Phillips in a recent number of the Anti-Slavery Standard in the most plausible shape that can be given it by an expert and ingenious lawyer. Phillips contended that an impeachment would amount to nothing unless the President is suspended from from office while it is pending. Butler describes method by which this suspension is to be accomplished. The President, says Butler, from the moment the articles of impeachment are presented to the Senate, becomes subject to arrest, and if the Senate so direct, to imprisonment, by their Sergeant-at-Arms. While thus in custody, the President is incapable of discharging the duties of his office, which becomes temporarily vacant. It would be filled by the Vice-President if there were one, but there being none, by the President pro tempore of the Senate.

This ingenious fallacy rests upon an assumption which a little scrutiny will easily explode. The assumption is, that an officer under impeachment stands in the same relation to the tribunal appointed to try him that an ordinary criminal does to an ordinary court. Because a court of justice never tries a criminal unless it has custody of his person, it is inferred that the same rule holds in the trial of an impeached officer by the Senate. The analogy fails in consequence of a total difference in the liability of the persons accused. The Constitution declares that "judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than removal from office" and disqualification to hold any future office. It is not necessary for the Senate to have the custody of the accused in order to inflict this punishment. But an ordinary criminal, on trial for theft, murder, or other crime, is liable to be punished by positive inflictions on his person. It would be an idle folly to go through the form of passing a sentence of death or imprisonment if the culprit was beyond the reach of the officers of the law. A person impeached of a crime otherwise punishable than by deposition from office, is also liable to the ordinary penalties of the same crime by the judgment of the ordinary tribunals. The impeachment, having no other aim than simply to vacate his office, can accomplish its purpose just as well without the custody of his person as with. He is summoned to appear on the same principle that the defendant in a civil suit is summonod to appear. If he stays away, he only waives his opportunity of defense. An officer summoned to appear and answer to an impeachment has these three alternatives, with perfect freedom of selection, namely—he may appear in person; he may appear only by counsel; or he may decline to appear at all. In the case of Justice Samuel Chase, of the United States Supreme Court, impeached in 1805, the Senate, after organizing as a high court of impeachment, adopted the following as one of its rules of proceeding:—

"10. The person impeached shall then be called to appear and answer the articles of impeachment exhibited against him. If he appears, or any person for him, the appearance shall be recorded, stating particularly if by himself or if by agent or attorney; naming the person appearing, and the capacity in which he appears. If he does not appear, either personally or by agent or attorney, the same shall be recorded."

It is clear, from this weighty and authoritative precedent, that General Butler is wholly wrong in his law. Instead of the President being taken into custody and imprisoned, it depends on his voluntary choice whether he will appear before the court at all. If he appears, he is just as free to appear by attorney as in person.

Judge Story, in his Commentaries on the Constitution, describes at length the formalities observed in trials for impeachment. We cite the following passage as corroborating the inferences we have drawn from the rule of the court in Judge Chase's case:—"If he" (the person impeached) "does not appear in person or by attorney, his default is recorded, and the Senate may proceed ex parte to the trial of the impeachment. If he does appear in person or by attorney, his appearance is recorded."

There have been, in all, four cases of impeachment, since the beginning of our Government, namely, that of William Blount, 1799; John Pickering, 1803; Samuel Chase, 1805; and James H. Peck, 1831. The law governing such trials, as stated by Judge Story, is founded on the precedents furnished by these four cases. The argument of General Butler, in support of the position of Wendell Phillips, that the President must necessarily be suspended from office during the trial, falls to the ground in the face of this uniform usage. But, even if the exploded assumption of Butler were correct, the taking of the President into temporary custody would not operate as a suspension from office. If he should be totally disabled for six weeks by typhus fever, we suppose nobody is absurd enough to say that he would cease to be President during his illness, and that the President of the Senate would be inducted into the Executive chair.

The Government would, in that case, be administered by the heads of departments, and papers requiring the President's name would remain unsigned until his recovery. That his office could not be filled by another person during his transient disability may be shown by a conclusive analogy. Suppose Chief Justice Chase should be impeached, would his office be vacant during the trial? If so, the President could send to the Senate a nomination to fill the vacancy. The idea of his doing so is utterly preposterous. The office can be vacated only after a conviction, and in consequence of a sentence. To make the office vacant is the only penalty which the Constitution allows against an officer impeached; and it is absurd to suppose the punishment can date from the accusation instead of from the judgment.

If the President is acquitted, the filling his office by another person during the trial would produce strange confusion. The new President might appoint a new Cabinet. He might break off negotiations in progress with foreign powers. He might revolutionize all the offices of the country by a sweeping proscription and new appointments. When the acquitted President returned to his station, he might find it impossible to reinstate his deposed subordinates by the refusal of a hostile Senate to confirm his appointments. General Butler's assumption is, therefore, as absurd in its consequences as it is untenable in law.

If we were to hazard a conjecture as to the course of the President, in case he should be impeached, it would be that he will object to the competency of the court and refuse to appear. If, when the law gives a man the benefit of twelve jurymen, an iniquitous court should attempt to try him before seven, he would refuse to plead. The Constitution gives an impeached officer the right to be tried by seventy-two Senators, and it requires two-thirds of the number to convict. If the radicals attempt to try the President by fifty-two, he has a right to deny the jurisdiction of a court of impeachment so composed.

For Chief Justice Chase to preside at the trial of the President would be also a great iniquity, although in conformity to the letter of the Constitution. The President of the Senate presides in all trials of impeachments, with the single exception that the Chief Justice takes his place when the President of the United States is tried. The reason which has always been given for this exception is solid and conclusive. It is, that the President of the Senate, being the constitutional successor of a deposed President, is an interested party, and therefore unfit to conduct the trial. This objection applies in all its force to Chief Justice Chase. Contrary to all former example, to all sense of fitness, to all the decorum which beseems his great office, the Chief Justice is a candidate for President, as Mr. Johnson's successor. His success in reaching the Presidency depends on excluding the unrepresented States from participation in the election; and the deposing of President Johnson is thought by the radicals a necessary step to their exclusion. With this great stake in the result, Chief Justice Chase is totally unfit to preside at the trial. His friends ought to blush for him if he consents to act in that capacity.

OFFICE OF THE LEHIGH COAL AND NAVIGATION COMPANY.
PHILADELPHIA, August 29, 1866.
The Stockholders of this Company are hereby notified that the Board of Managers have determined to allow to all persons who shall appear as Stockholders on the Books of the Company on the 5th of September next, after the closing of transfers, at 3 P. M. of that day the privilege of subscribing for new stock at par, to the extent of one share of new stock for every five shares then standing in their names. Each shareholder entitled to a fractional part of a share shall have the privilege of subscribing for a full share.
The subscription books will open on MONDAY, September 10, and close on SATURDAY, December 1, 1866 at 3 P. M.
Payment will be considered due June 1, 1867, but an instalment of 20 per cent., or ten dollars per share, must be paid at the time of subscribing. The balance may be paid from time to time, at the option of the subscribers, before the 1st of November, 1867. On all payments, including the aforesaid instalment, made before the 1st of June, 1867, discount will be allowed at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, and on all payments made between that date and the 1st of November, 1867, interest will be charged at the same rate.
All stock not paid up in full by the 1st of November, 1867, will be forfeited to the use of the Company. Certificates for the new stock will not be issued until after June 1, 1867, and said stock, if paid up in full, will be entitled to the November dividend of 1867, but to no earlier dividend. CITY INTELLIGENCE.

(For Additional City Intelligence see First Page.)

THE UNION HEBREW BENEVOLENT SOCIETY OF PHILADELPHIA.—At the annual meeting of this society, held a few days since, the following officers were elected:—M. A. Mitchell, President; Seligman Abales, Vice-President; Charles Bloomingdale, Treasurer; Lucian Moss, Secretary; Mayer Arnold, Marcus Cauffman, Henry de Boer, Joseph Einstein, Abraham Hart, Isaac Leeser, Lazarus Mayer, and Henry Newhouse, Managers. The Treasurer presented his report for the past two years, from which it appears that the receipts from all sources were $1450 84; balance on hand, $88'48, making a total of $1539'32. There was expended $1699'63. The benefaction of the Society is calculated for transient relief, including funeral expenses for the poor, and is mostly distributed by the President and the Committee on Sick, composed of four members of the Board.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT MEMBER OF THE I. O. O. F.—William M. Allen, of San Francisco, California, formerly of this city, one of the Representatives from the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of California to the Grand Lodge of the United States, which held its sessions in the city of Baltimore in September last, and where he attended, died in this city on Monday evening, of cholera, after an illness of only a few days. He was formerly a resident of the Sixth Ward, and left for California fifteen years since. He will be buried in this city on Thursday, with Masonic and Odd Fellow honors.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—Professor John G. Mueller, one of our oldest citizens, died on the 6th instant. He came to America in 1802. In 1814 he was appointed a teacher and organist in the German Lutheran Congregations of this city. After sixteen years of service as teacher he resigned the position, retaining, however, his office as organist until the day of his death, having occupied the same for a period of fifty-two years.

THE JEWISH HOSPITAL.—The new Jewish Hospital in West Philadelphia is now in full operation, and, since its opening on the 6th of August last, quite a number of patients have received the benefits of the institution. The first one received was a Hebrew teacher, a bachelor, who met with an accident by falling through a trap-door in a warehouse. He remained in the Hospital four weeks.

THE BODY OF JOHN WILLIAMS.—The post-mortem examination of the body of John Williams, drowned from a boat off Reed street wharf last week, did not reveal wounds sufficient to have caused death. The inquest on the body will be held to-day by Coroner Taylor. It will be remembered that this case was supposed to have been a mysterious murder. There were two men in the boat at the time Williams fell overboard. The other man swam ashore.

MAN SHOT.—Yesterday an affray occurred at the poll at Wharton and Second streets, which resulted in the shooting of Timothy Riley in the head, but not seriously injuring him. It is alleged that Riley was driven from the poll, and upon his returning was taken into custody. At this time a pistol was discharged, the load from which took effect as stated.

SALE POSTPONED.—The sale of steamers, which was to take place yesterday at the Navy Yard, was postponed, because the bids did not come up to the limitation prices fixed by the Navy Department. Very few knew of the sale, for the reason that it was not properly advertised.

A MAN HANGS HIMSELF.—Albert Koons, twenty-three years old, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself in a stable in Hope street, below Master. The Coroner was sent for to hold an inquest.

A SAD ACCIDENT.—A young man named Donnell fell from the third story of a house in Ninth street, near Locust. He was insensible when he was picked up, and on further examination, it was found that he had broken his spine. He is now lying in a very critical condition.

JURY TRIALS.—As officially announced, there will be a resumption of the jury trials in the United States Circuit Court to-day. There will be some interesting cases brought before the Court during the present term.

SOMETHING NEW FOR YOUNG SPOUTERS.—

The man looked on his waistcoat's wreck,
Whence buttons all had fled;
Gone was its blackness, every speck,
And bare appeared each thread
Then came an oath—a tearing sound;
Whose rage that waistcoat tore?
Go, ask the hands that scattered round
Those fragments on the floor!
That man now plays a wiser part,
And always deals at Bennett's mart! [2807

We are prepared with an unusually full and comprehensive stock of Men's, Youths', and Boys' Fall and Winter Clothing, which we are selling at MUCH LOWER PRICES THAN HAVE BEEN KNOWN FOR SEVERAL YEARS. Congratulating our patrons and the public generally upon the decline in the prices of materials which renders this possible, we invite an examination.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE "REPUBLICAN INVINCIBLES," "BOYS IN BLUE," "WHITE BOYS IN BLACK AND BLUE," AND "KEYSTONE CLUBS."—Now that politics are getting so exciting, the subscriber would offer for the use of parades, meetings, etc., his famous "Bullet-proof Vest," capable of resisting any pistol-shot, or a rifle-shot at fifty yards, so that discussions, even the most animated, can be carried on with comparative safety. A large deduction made to clubs in taking a number. Hear what General Grant says:—"It is an insult to ask any loyal man to buy his Clothing at any other place than at Charles Stokes & Co.'s One-price, under the Continental, as they sell the best, and have the price marked in plain figures on all of the goods."
We fully endorse the above.
CHARLE STOKES & Co.,
Clothiers, under the Continental.

HOMŒOPATHIC REMEDIES.—One of Dr. Humphreys' cases of medicines, containing thirty-five vials, embraces remedies for every well-known disease, and costs $10. A family provided with one of them will save during the year ten times the amount of their cost, in obviating the necessity of medical attendance, besides securing its members from protracted and serious illness. The trifling outlay required should be a consideration with all who believe in the axiom that "a stitch in time saves nine." Disease, to be overcome, must be promptly met, and Dr. Humphreys' remedies are invaluable for such a purpose.—New York Courier.
HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC HOMŒOPATHIC MEDICINE COMPANY. No. 562 BROADWAY, N. Y.

A FINE DISPLAY OF FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING.—The crisp October weather we are now enjoying admonishes all to prepare for a greater change, which will soon be upon us. In the matter of Clothing, Messrs. Somers & Son, No. 625 Chesnut street, have now in store a really superb stock of ready-made goods, cut in the most fashionable style, and marked at unusually low prices. This well-established house is in high repute with all who have given it their patronage, and their elegant assortments of uncut goods affords those who order a fair chance for selection.

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED.—Persons afflicted with any disease arising from a disordered liver or stomach, nervous debility, dyspepsia, or liver complaint, should try Perry Davis' Pain Killer. It seldom fails to effect a cure in a very short time. Sold by druggists generally throughout the United States.

MARTIN LUTHER once thought he saw the Devil in his chamber, and threw an inkstand at his head. Had they had in those days Ayer's Pills to exorcise all the devils that come from a disordered stomach, his laughable fright would not have become a matter of history.

THE latest and most beautiful style of Looking-glass and Picture-frames are made and kept on hand at Reimer's, Arch street, east of Seventh.

Parties having tickets will retain them until after the awards are made, and if their numbers appear in the list, they will forward their tickets immediately, with full directions as to the shipping of goods or deeds for the property. Tickets for sale at all the principal Hotels, Book, and Music Stores in the city, and at the Headquarters, in the Mammoth Fair Building for the benefit of the Soldiers' and Sailors' National Orphans' Home Fund, corner of Seventh street and Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, D. C.
The Directors appeal to the liberality of the people to give this enterprise their king support, and thereby assist in relieving the wants of the orphans of our fallen comrades.
CARD.—A large number of tickets remaining unsold, it will be necessary to postpone the drawing until THURSDAY, the 11th of October, 1866, at which time it will positively occur.
The many swindling schemes that have been presented to the public during the past few months, somewhat delayed our sales, until we were able to satisfy the people throughout the country that this enterprise was genuine, and solely for charitable purposes. The Directors are confident of the sale of every ticket, and have allotted sufficient time to guarantee the sales without any further postponement.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1866.

The Victory.

We congratulate our readers upon the glorious victory achieved yesterday by the Republican party. We rejoice over it not as a mere partisan victory, but as a triumph of the people, a victory and a vindication of the popular element in our Government.

In Pennsylvania we have elected our entire State ticket, our Legislature, which insures a United States Senator, and have re-elected every Republican Congressman, with a gain of two and probably three Congressmen.

In Ohio we carry everything by increased majorities, defeating Pendleton for Congress, the Democratic nominee for Vice-President in 1864.

In Indiana we carry our ticket by about the majorities of 1866.

In Iowa we carry the entire State and Congressional Districts by splendid majorities.

The magnitude of this great triumph must be measured by the forces we have had to contend against. It is not merely a victory over the Democratic party, but it is a victory over that party reinforced by President Johnson and his entire influence. We have fought the battle against the whole power and patronage of the Federal Administration. We have averted it against the treachery of those whom our own hands had armed with power. We have had nothing to rely upon but the intelligence and incorruptible virtue of the masses of the people. We have triumphed through the might of our principles.

The general result as to Congress is most gratifying. So far as heard from, we have not lost a man, while we have probably gained three or four members. The indorsement of their Representatives by the people is complete, emphatic, overwhelming. The popular verdict against "My Policy" is unmistakable and authoritative. The supremacy and integrity of the popular branch of the Government are maintained. We are happily saved from that threatened monstrosity of usurpation, an illegal, bogus, and revolutionary organization of the lower branch of Congress.

So far as our own State is concerned, she has done nobly. The Democracy, reinforced by the Federal Administration, made the most desperate efforts to wrest from us the the control of the State. The close Congressional districts were worked up with an energy borrowed from desperation. In spite of all their efforts, we have more than held our own. We gain on Congress, and we secure the election of a sound and honorable Republican in place of that renegade and turn-coat who has so long misrepresented us in the United States Senate. Our majority is decreased somewhat in this city, it is true, but the party as a party is stronger and firmer than ever before. Twenty-five hundred votes measure the entire strength of the "bread-and-butter brigade" in our midst. The party has been purified, but not weakened.

Looking over the whole ground, and considering the nature of the influences brought to bear against us, we have cause for great rejoicing over the good work done yesterday. It was a Waterloo defeat to the Democracy. It was their last desperate attempt to retrieve their shattered fortunes. They must now go out of sight as an organization. They fought not so much for victory as for life.

The people of the "mighty North" have again spoken. Will the President listen?

Who We Have Lost.

NOTWITHSTANDING the heavy losses of the Republicans in the Navy Yard Wards, we have lost but a very few of our candidates. Nichols, in the First Senatorial District, is defeated; but that result was brought about by many personal influences as well as political; and the peculiar attitude of the opposing candidates in regard to the Senatorial question, makes such a defeat hardly a loss for the party. General McCandless is the least objectionable Democrat that could have been selected.

In the Second Legislative District, William S. Gregory, Democrat, is elected—a gain for that party. So also in the Fifth, William B. Hood is chosen. The result in these two districts can cause no surprise, as the whole patronage of the Government was turned against them.

It will thus be seen that, notwithstanding the desperate efforts of the opposition, backed by all the patronage of the Administration, we have lost but three votes in the Legislature, and we had some twenty odd to spare.

What Our New York Contemporaries Think.

THE New York Tribune, after a careful estimate of the returns, and of the special despatches placed at its control, estimates our majority for GEARY to be from 10,000 to 20,000, and claims that we have carried only our own members and General Cake. It concludes its leader with the salutation:—"Well done, Old Keystone. New York will double your majority."

The New York Times gives us the State by from 20,000 to 25,000, and also nineteen members of Congress—a gain of three over last election; and, speaking of the West, adds:—

"Thus far we have nothing from the West, except a vague assertion that, in Eastern Ohio, the Republican gains are considerable. There can be little doubt that the results are Pennsylvania over again, and that most of the gains are on the Republican side. As for Indiana and Iowa, the news will be only the realization of estimates all inclining to the strengthening of a majority now almost overwhelming."

The New York World concedes the election of General Geary by 15,000 majority, and also acknowledges our gain of General Cake. It, however, takes heart because of the Democratic gains in Philadelphia, and because of the slow manner in which the returns come in. It says:—

"The results of the election yesterday are too meagre for one to state positively the full result in each State. Moreover, little reliance can be placed upon the first despatches that are received, since they pass through Republican hands, and are doctored by them to suit themselves, as was done in the case of the Vermont and Maine elections last month. But the news, meagre as it is, indicates Democratic gains everywhere. The very paucity of reports received last night augurs well for the Democrats, for had the radicals achieved a victory, they would have spread the news far and wide at once."

The New York Herald gives us the State by 15,000 to 20,000 and deduces the conclusion that:—

"Altogether we think the results of yesterday's elections may be pronounced sufficiently decisive to call for a new departure by the Administration and the Southern States in favor of the Constitutional amendment of Congress now before the States for their ratification. The gains of the Democrats in the comparative popular vote in such cities as Philadelphia and Cincinnati reveal the assistance drawn from the Administration; but the general drift of the popular current outside of the great cities indicates more clearly the predominant public sentiment of the North."

Our Victory and the Unionists of the South.

THE result of yesterday's vote will cheer the hearts of the struggling, depressed, and overborne Union men of the South. It will show them that they are not forgotten by the great Union party of the nation. It will encourage them to hold fast their faith in free principles, and to labor for their final recognition and triumph in the South. Let us hope, too, that it will give them better protection at home. The late Rebels may as well understand first as last, that the era of violence and misrule at the South must come to a close. Men must be allowed to express their sentiments there as well as elsewhere, without molestation. The victory of yesterday means "reconstrucrion" on the plan of free schools, a free press, and free discussion. Let our Southern brethren conform to the situation at once.

Fifty Republican Congressmen Elected.

FIFTY Republican Congressmen were elected yesterday, with the chances in favor of two more. This is better than the most enthusiastic dared to hope. It hardly seemed possible, with the tremendous efforts brought to bear against the Republican members, that some of them should not fail of an election. The people have responded most nobly in defense of their faithful representatives.

Woollen Mill Destroyed.

BOSTON, October 10.—The Arlington Mill, in Lawrence, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The mill was used mainly for the manufacture of woollen goods, and employed about 150 hands. The loss is estimated at $150,000, and is said to be covered by insurance.

Arrival of Steamers.

NEW YORK, October 10.—Arrived, steamers Aleppo, from Liverpool, San Salvador, from Savannah, and Manhattan, from Vera Cruz.

Sailing of the "Cuba."

BOSTON, October 10.—The steamer Cuba sailed at noon for Liverpool, via Halifax, with 130 passengers. She carries out no specie.

—The theatre of the Sultan at Constantinople, which has lately been destroyed by fire, is described as having been most beautiful, of the same form as our European theatres. The dress circle was reserved for the officers of the Court. On the first tier were a few boxes for the use of the diplomatic corps and of the Pachas. On the second and third tiers were large bathing galleries for the use of the ladies of the harem, where, unseen, the Sultan's wives could enjoy the beauty of the performance. Behind these galleries were magnificent saions, furnished in the most costly manner, in which the fair denizens of the harem could while away their time in eating sweetmeats or smoking their cigarettes.

—It is related in the Phare de la Loire that the Mayor of a commune having received a letter from the Prefect of his department, enjoining him to take all necessary precautions in case of the cholera making its appearance in his village, replied that he had already made every preparation. The Prefect, not content with this answer, visiting in person the above-named commune, and to his astonishment and dismay found that the worthy Mayor had caused as many graves to be dug in the churchyard as there were inhabitants in the village.

—Every year some fresh article of luxury becomes the rage in Paris. At the present moment aquariums are all the fashion, and we could name more than a hundred shops where no other article is sold. Among other novelties which seem likely to become very fashionable in the capital are watches and chains made of hardened india-rubber, which closely imitates different sorts of wood. Should these articles get into general use, the pickpockets will lose considerably.

—A small and poor-looking house, situate at the corner of the Rue de Nevers, on the Quai de Conte, at Paris, is at present undergoing repairs. This house, which is known under the name of "Nid de l'Aigle" (the eagle's nest), is so called because Napoleon the Great, when he arrived in Paris for the first time, inhabited a small room in the top story.

—Dr. Henry Bryant has paid $8000 in gold at Paris for a collection of nine thousand birds, and presented it to the Boston Society of Natural History.

—Ladies in Paris will wear Turkish trousers this winter instead of—well, unmentionables.

THE LOSS OF THE "EVENING STAR."

Only Sixteen Lives Known to Have Been Saved—Names of the Saved—List of the Crew and Steerage Passengers—Names of Women Supposed to be Lost—Description of the Vessel.

SAVANNAH, Ga., October 9.—The steamship Evening Star, from New York to New Orleans, foundered at 6 o'clock on the morning of October 3, 150 miles east of Tybee Island. All the passengers, excepting Mr. Frank Gerrard, of No. 51 Bond street, Brooklyn, Edward Larner and H. H. Harris, are lost. The third mate, Thomas Fitzpatrick, John Dempsey, John Campbell, James Howe, Chancellor Mason, crew, and Frank Gerrard, passenger, arrived at Fernandina, Florida, on the 7th instant, four days out, in an exhausted condition. Captain Knapp left the ship in this boat, which was capsized four times after the ship went down, when a piece of driftwood striking him on the head killed him.

There is no hope or probability of any of the women passengers being saved, or any other passengers than those mentioned. Another boat, with Chief Engineer Finger, Purser Ellery S. Allen, John Lang, Frederick Shaffer, George Smith, John Rowland, John Powers, Dennis Gannon, Rowland Stephens, crew, and Edward Larner and H. H. Harris, passengers, was picked up on the 5th instant, at 5 o'clock, by the bark Fleetwing, Captain Laurig, Norway, from Belize for Southampton, England, and transferred to the schooner Waring, Captain Smith, from New York to Apalachicola. They arrived at Savannah on October 8. The French Opera Troupe on board were all lost. The scene was dreadful beyond expression.

The Chief Engineer, Purser, and H. H. Harris, passenger, saved from the ill-fated Evening Star, leave for New York on the Virgo, to-morrow at 7 o'clock A. M.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

AUGUSTA, Ga., October 9.—The following additional particulars of the loss of the steamer Evening Star are from the Savannah News of this morning, and embrace the latest details of the disaster:—

The steamer Evening Star on the 2d inst. encountered a severe gale, which commenced at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. When she was 180 miles east of Tybee Island. After weathering the storm some seventeen hours, she foundered at 6 o'clock on the morning of the 3d, with 270 souls on board. Only 17 persons are known to have been saved.

It seems that there were only three or four lifeboats on board, in one of which the Chief Engineer, the Purser, six of the crew, and two passengers succeeded, after capsizing several times, in keeping afloat, until they were picked up by the Norwegian barque Fleetwing, from which they were transferred to the schooner S. J. Waring, and arrived here last evening.

The following is the list of those saved on the Purser's book:—Robert Finger, chief engineer; Ellery S. Allen, Purser; John Lang, watertender; Frederick Shaffer, coal-passer; George Smith, seaman; John Powers, seaman; Dennis Gannon, waiter; Rowland Stevens, waiter; Edward Larner, passenger; H. H. Hairis, passenger.

A second boat took sixteen persons from the steamer, among whom were the captain and third mate. The boat was capsized twelve or fifteen times. The captain was lost on the fourth time. This boat arrived at Fernandina, Sunday morning, with six persons and two dead bodies on board.

Only one passenger was saved in the third mate's boat. His name is Frank Gerard, whose residence is at No. 31 Bond street, Brooklyn.

The following are the names of the survivors in this boat:—Thomas Fitzgerald, third mate; John Dempsey, seaman; John Campbell, seaman; James Howe, seaman; Chancellor Mason, steerage steward; Frank Gerard, passenger.

Indiana—The Union Majority in the State—The Congressmen Elected.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 10.—The State returns, though incomplete, indicate the election of the Republican State ticket by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority.

In the First Congressional District, Niblack, Democrat, is re-elected.

In the Third District, Hunter, Republican, is elected.

In the Fifth District, Julian, Republican.

In the Sixth District, Coburn, Republican.

In the Ninth District, Colfax, Republican.

In the Tenth District, Williams, Republican.

In the Eleventh District, J. P. C. Shanks, Republican.

In the Seventh District, Mr. Voorhee's old district, the contest is very close.

Washington county, in the Eleventh District, gives Mr. Shanks, Republican, 1500 majority, a gain of 400.

FROM BALTIMORE TO-DAY.

The Municipal Election—All Quiet—The Radicals Sure of Victory—The Rebel Votes not Received.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE EVENING TELEGRAPH].

BALTIMORE, October 10.—The election is progressing quietly. There is no disturbance any where.

The Judges of election are only receiving the votes of those who were registered last year, which amounts in all to about twelve thousand; a large majority of these vote for Chapman, and the unconditional Union ticket. The conservative Johnson men are making no special effort to vote, being discouraged by the results in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Iowa. The Unionists have great rejoicing over the same.

FIRE AT WISCASSET, MAINE.

Thirty Families Houseless—Loss Estimated at About $100,000—Movement for the Relief of the Sufferers.

WISCASSET, Me, October 9.—A most destructive conflagration occurred in this village to-day, breaking out at 3 o'clock in the morning in an old wooden house, in the upper story, occupied by families, called the Tyler Building. The origin of the fire is unknown. A strong northeast wind was prevailing at the time, which so fanned the flames that, within two hours and a half, an area of 12 acres was burned over, and it is now a pile of smouldering ruins.

The loss is estimated at more than $100,000, on which there is an insurance of not more than $35,000. The burnt district comprises about two-thirds of the business portion of the town. Between fifty and sixty buildings are destroyed, and about thirty families are made homeless.

The principal building burned was the Custom House, valued at $8000. Several fine residences were destroyed, together with valuable wharf property and storehouses.

Two elegant yachts were partially burned, and two other vessels lying at the wharves somewhat damaged. Among the heaviest sufferers are Alexander Johnson, who loses $10,000, no insurance; Wm. P. Lennox, $10,000, partially insured; Arnold Greenleaf, $2000, no insurance; John Topham, $7500, partially insured; Lemuel Hubbard, $4500, insured for $3000 in the Metropolitan Company, New York; John Babson, $6000, insured for $3000.

The citizens have taken measures for immediate relief.

TERRIBLE CONFLAGRATION.

Destruction of the City of Port au Prince—Explosion of an Arsenal—Several Vessels Burned at their Wharves, Etc.

BOSTON, October 9—Letters from Port au Prince dated September 18, state that the Arsenal, containing a large quantity of gunpowder, took fire and exploded. The fire spread and destroyed the greater part of the town. Several vessels were burned. The loss of life is reported as very heavy.

DESCRIPTION OF PORT AU PRINCE.

The city of Port au Prince, or, as it is sometimes called, Port Republican, is the capital of the Republic of Hayti. It is situated on the west coast, at the head of the Port au Prince bay. It is built on ground that rises gradually from the sea and from the bay. The buildings present the appearance of an irregular amphitheatre. The houses are generally of wood and two stories in height, so constructed with a view of better withstanding earthquakes, with which that part of the world is often visited. In 1751 and 1770 the city was nearly destroyed by one of these terrible visitations. However, a few of the houses are built of brick and stone.

The principal buildings of note in the town are a Roman Catholic church, a college, lyceum, custom-house, mint, and hospital. A considerable trade is carried on between Port-au-Prince and the United States. Eighty-three vessels flying the United States flag, with cargoes valued at $927,904, entered this port during the year 1857-58. The same vessels returned with cargoes, the estimated value of which was $10,961,836. The town has been often visited by large conflagrations, the principal of which were those of 1794, 1820, 1822, and 1850. The estimated population is 30,000.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

OFFICE OF THE EVENING TELEGRAPH,
Wednesday, October 10, 1866.

The Stock Market, as we have noticed for several days past, continues very dull, but prices are without any material change. Government bonds are firmly held; old 5-20s sold at 113, and 7·30s at 106¼. 112¼ was bid for 6s of 1881; 99½ for 10-40s, and 110 for new 5-20s. City loans are unchanged. The new issue sold at 99¾.

In Railroad shares there is very little doing. Reading sold at 58¼@58¾, no change; Pennsylvania Railroad at 56¾, no change; and Northern Central at 46¼, no change; 129¾ was bid for Camden and Amboy; 59¼ for Norristown; 56¾ for Minehill; 30¾ for North Pennsylvania; 64¾ for Lehigh Valley; 30 for Elmira common, 42 for preferred do.; 31¾ for Catawissa preferred; and 32¾ for Philadelphia and Erie.

City Passenger Railroad shares are without change. Germantown sold at 30. 88¼ was bid for Second and Third; 64 for Tenth and Eleventh; 21 for Thirteenth and Fifteenth; 55 for Chesnut and Walnut; 30 for Green and Coates; 28 for Girard College; and 17 for Hestonville.

Bank shares are firmly held at full prices, but we hear of no sales. 101 was bid for Seventh National; 230 for North America; 148 for Philadelphia; 133¼ for Farmers' and Mechanics'; 100 for Northern Liberties; 32¾ for Mechanics'; 103 for Southwark; 100 for Kensington; 68 for City; 45 for Consolidation; and 70 for Corn Exchange.

Canal shares are inactive. Susquehanna Canal sold at 14; 28¾ was bid for Schuylkill Navigation common; and 37¾ for preferred do.

In the Money Market there is no material change to notice. Call loans are offered at 4@5 per cent.; first class mercantile paper is scarce, and ranges at from 5@6 per cent. per annum.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Additional Local Items see Third Page.]

ELECTION DAY—THE ASPECT OF THE CITY DURING THE ELECTION—SCENES AND INCIDENTS AROUND TOWN AND AT THE POLLS—RETURNS AT THE LEAGUE HOUSE, ETC. ETC. ETC.—Owing to our system of conducting elections, namely, the precinct system, whereby the voters are so distributed in small squads through the city that it is almost an impossibility for any number of them to congregate together at any one point during election day, there were no disturbances of any moment from the time the polls opened until the close of the same.

A stranger in the city would have had no reason to suppose that during yesterday our citizens were engaged in an election of more than ordinary interest, for beyond the appearance in the streets of a few omnibuses, containing bands of music and carriages being driven hither and thither, covered with placards containing political devices and names of candidates, the city presented its usual appearance.

Towards evening, however, the streets began to display evident signs of life and excitement, for a short time after the closing of the polls, thousands congregated at the different points where election returns were expected, and much enthusiasm was manifested as the returns were read at these different rendezvous favorable to the political proclivities of those assembled.

No serious disturbances occurred during the evening, although a few street fights took place between individuals.

The main points of interest during the night were the Union League House, the Democratic Headquarters on Walnut street, and the different newspaper offices.

Below we give a summary of the notable events of the day and evening.

The glowing bonfires in all the leading streets sent up a lurid glare that colored the heavy overhanging masses of clouds with a bright fascinating hue, as lively and soul-inspiring as the good news circulating below.

From 7 o'clock until the "wee sma' hours" the scene was an animated and busy one. Telegrams were constantly being received from all sections of the city, and at later hours from the State, which had to be compared with the votes of former years, and after being written in triplicate sheets, placed in the prepared frames on the second story balcony, from whence the lighted transparencies could be read at great distances. The labor was a most arduous one, but many of our leading citizens worked untiringly for hours in the labor of love afforded by chronicling the glorious results for the Union.

As Judge Kelley, on retiring from the League, appeared upon the steps, he was recognized by the populace, greeted with immense cheers, and imperiously called upon for a speech.

In response he returned his thanks for the honor done him. They had placed him, to-day, a thorn in the side of Andrew Johnson, and he would pick him to the end of his official term, for President Johnson had been guilty of highly impeachable offenses. (Cheers.) The President may go out of office before 1868. (Great cheers.) The question whether he will or will not be impeached depends greatly upon the facility of the machinery of the Government provided by the Constitution.

The glorious announcements of Allegheny, 9000; Dauphin, 1200; Lancaster, 6000; Erie, 4000; Lebanon, 1800, with the following record, were welcomed with tremendous enthusiasm. At eleven o'clock was given this placard:—

"For Congress—O'Neill, Myers, Kelley, and Taylor"

This touched the hearts of the people more deeply than any of the preceding, eliciting one of the grandest, most enthusiastic demonstrations.

Throughout the night, the record continued, until, tired out with good news, Union citizens went home, content to wait until the morning for the fullest details.

The Eighteenth Ward Myers Campaign Club, preceded by a band of music, paraded through the streets last evening with a banner containing the Union majority in the Ward. The men presented a neat appearance, and all along the thoroughfares cheered lustily for Geary and the whole ticket.

The Republican Invincibles were out in full force, and presented their usual neat and soldier-like appearance. They marched to the Union League House, and from there proceeded through the principal streets of the city. Their appearance in the streets was a signal that a Union victory had been achieved.

At the Sixteenth Ward precinct house, at Third and George streets, a number of politicians of the different parties engaged in riotous conduct, and before quiet was restored several blows were dealt out upon the heads of the contending parties.

Several of the participants were taken into custody, and those who were unable to obtain bail were sent below.

In the Eleventh Ward a similar disturbance took place, but the parties engaging in it, after dealing out violent blows upon their antagonists, were taken into custody and locked up for a hearing.

Soon after closing the polls at the Fourth Precinct of the Twentieth Ward a prominent member of one of the political parties gave vent to his feelings by raising a row among a number of persons on the sidewalk.

A large crowd soon assembled on the spot, but the police immediately interfered and scattered them before any serious injury had been done.

In the Fifth Precinct of the Ninth Ward there was a slight disturbance among some discharged soldiers, but the outbreak was soon quelled, and no serious injury was done to the parties engaged in the affair.

About 10 o'clock in the evening, as the Myers Campaign Club was parading through some of the streets of the Seventeenth Ward, an attack was made upon them by persons belonging to the opposite party. During the disturbance several pistols were fired and bricks were thrown, causing some of the persons on the sidewalks to be injured, as well as annumber of other members of the Club. The assailing party made the attack at Germantown road and Master streets. They drove the Club for a short distance, but the members soon rallied and charged on their assailants, who were in turn driven from the scene of action. The injured persons were taken to a neighboring drug store, where their wounds were dressed, after which they were taken to their places of residence by members of the party.

Hon. Leonard Myers, the successful candidate for Congress in the Third District, after the announcement of his election was made known last evening, was waited on by a large number of his political friends, amounting to several thousand persons.

A long table was spread in the rooms on the lower floor of his residence, on which was placed a fine repast. All present partook of the delicacies of the occasion with a hearty good relish. During the evening several toasts were drank to the successful candidate, who responded to the same in a few appropriate remarks. About 12 o'clock last night, in response to a number of his political friends, Mr. Myers made an address from the steps of his house.

Having addressed his fellow-citizens on several occasions during the evening, he excused himself from further remarks and retired amid the applause of the crowd who had assembled to congratulate him on his successful election.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.—This morning, about 9 o'clock, a serious disturbance occurred on the pavement adjoining the old Post Office, which came near terminating fatally. It appears that a man named Hasey, and another named Jimmy Cating, had a political discussion, when Hasey pulled out a knife and made a cut at Cating, striking him in the neck and severing one of the superficial veins. Hasey then ran out Dock street, down Third to Harmony court, passed into Fourth street, and up Library street, followed by a crowd of men and boys, shouting "Stop that man!"

He was stopped by two gentlemen upon the pavement of the Custom House, but was released by them, and started on a run through the Post Office, but was intercepted at the Chesnut street entrance by Officer Silverthorne, of the Chesnut Hill Police, who deserves a great deal of credit for the manner in which he grappled with the prisoner.

He was taken to the Central Station by the above-mentioned officer, being very refractory on the route, he with great difficulty restraining him from turning his coat inside out and starting again. The knife in question was dropped in Library street and picked up by a Mr. Brown; it is an ordinary shoemaker's knife, the blade about two inches in length. It had no blood on it when picked up.

The prisoner is about 5 feet 9 inches in height, of a light complexion and light hair. He had a black eye and a bruise on his left cheek. The wounded man was taken to the drug store of Dr. Jayne, where his wound was dressed by Dr. Baxter.

RESULTS OF GETTING INTO BAD COMPANY—Mr. William M. Barlow, a member of the bar, having business in New York, put up at the St. Nicholas Hotel. After attending the theatre last Monday night, he stopped at Ellen Hatches' Concert Saloon, on Broadway, and drank immoderately of wine at the rate of eight dollars per bottle.

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning she sent him to a hotel in a hack, and in an insensible condition, she accompanying him thither until within a block of the hotel, when she stopped the hack, got out, and vamosed. Mr. Barlow was carried into his room, when it was found he had no money to pay the hackman. The night-clerk called a special detective to look over the case, and they learned that Mr. Barlow had lost a gold watch valued at $250, $300 in United States legal-tender notes, and a gold pencil worth twenty dollars.

The proper steps being immediately taken, Ellen Hatch was arrested, and the watch and chain found in her possession. She refused to give them up, as she claimed that she held them as security for $14 for the bottles of wine that Mr. Barlow had not paid her for. She further stated that Barlow had ordered seventeen bottles of wine at her house.

At the hearing which took place yesterday, several witnesses swore to the fact that Mr. Barlow had exhausted all his means in paying for fifteen bottles of wine, and had then given his watch and chain to the keeper of the saloon in security for two bottles more. Ellen Hatch was held to bail in two thousand bail to answer at Court.

FRAUDULENT VOTING.—The time-honored admission to "vote early and often" was obeyed, it appears, in some cases, and attempts made to obey it in others. There were quite a number of arrests for this offence. Thomas Carey was arrested at the polls, at Front and Catharine streets, for an attempt at fraudulent voting in attempting to pass himself off for another man. He only succeeded in getting himself arrested, and held in $1600 bail by Alderman Tittermary.

John Burk was arrested at Twelfth and Jefferson streets, for voting twice the same day. It is alleged that he voted at the Fifth and Thirteenth Precincts of the Twentieth Ward. He had a hearing before Alderman Fitch, who held him in $800.

George Emery and George Benners were arrested at the polls, at Third and Brown streets, for an alleged attempt at illegal voting, when they were not entitled to the privilege. They were held in $1000 each by Alderman Butler.

BASE BALL.—A very interesting match of base ball was played on the grounds of the West Philadelphia Base Ball Club, between the Municipals and the members of the Spartacus. The game was well played, and was witnessed by a large number of spectators. The following is the score:—

RIOTOUS CONDUCT AT A GERMAN BALL.—On Monday night, as some Germans were having a gay and hilarious time at the lager beer saloon of George Bassart, in Girard avenue, below Seventh street, there was a fight caused by some disorderly characters. It appears that Michael Roach and Frank Cush got into a quarrel with Jacob Padds, and ended in using bricks and stones on each other. Padds fled inside Bassart's saloon, and the other two throwing bricks and stones through the window at him. They were all three arrested and taken before Alderman Fitch, who, after hearing the facts of the case, held Roach and Cush in $1100 bail each, and Padd in $600 bail to answer.

THE ROW AT TWENTIETH AND CATHARINE STREETS.—During the disturbance at the polls at the corner of Twentieth and Catharine streets, yesterday afternoon, John Eagan and Benjamin Lovett were arrested for being the principal ringleaders. Eagan, it is alleged, is the man who stabbed Sergeant Welsh in the neck. The Sergeant is hurt very dangerously, and Eagan was committed by Alderman Lutz to await the result of his injuries. Lovett was held in $800 to answer the charge of riotous conduct. Officer Orr, who was attacked at the same time, was not very badly hurt, though very extensively bruised.

BEATING AN OFFICER.—This kind of amusement appears to be decidedly on the increase. Last Monday night Joseph Hannem and William Sagers got into a drunken row at the lager beer saloon at Ridge avenue, near Ogden street, and Officer A kinson attempting to interfere and arrest them, they turned on him, got his billy away from him, beat him over the head with it, and knocked him down, and then kicked him after he was down. Officer Atkinson was injured rather severely. The two rowdies were afterwards taken into custody, and had a hearing before Alderman Hutchinson, who held them each in $1500 to answer.

INTERFERING WITH THE "CLOTH."—Jas. S. Ferguson, in whose breast there does not exist that proper respect for law and authority that should actuate an orderly citizen, was arrested at the polls of the First Precinct, Eleventh Ward, in Callowhill street, below Second, for interfering with the police officers there stationed. He was indulging, it is said, in some very forcible language, and uttering threats against the officers when he was taken in hand. Alderman Toland held him in $1000 bail to answer the charge of inciting to riot.

A BELLIGERENT.—Robert Hamilton, who it will be remembered appeared in connection with the riot at Moyamensing avenue and Federal streets, during the attack on the extra-Assessor's Office, at that place, was arrested on Monday evening, for an assault and battery on Lewis List, and for carrying concealed deadly weapons. He had a revolver on his person when arrested. It is alleged that he beat List very badly. The affair occurred at Fifth and Christian streets. Hamilton was held to bail by Alderman Lutz to answer.

AN ELECTION ROW.—T. Makin and A. McLevy were arrested ar Front and Otter streets whilst acting in a very violent and disorderly manner. After the arrest was made they turned on Officer O'Brien, who made the arrest, and beat him severely, knocking him down and tearing his coat. They had a hearing before Alderman Shoemaker and were held to bail; Makin in $1000 and McLery in $700, to answer for their riotous conduct.

A RECKLESS JEHU.—Simon O'Sullivan was taken in hand yesterday morning, whilst indulging himself with a fast drive with an ice-wagon in the neighborhood of Eleventh and Poplar streets. Not caring much where he went, Simon went over a small child named John Ryan, injuring it rather seriously. He was arrested and held in $800 bail by Alderman Fitch for fast driving.

SKIRMISH AROUND A BONFIRE.—There was quite a disturbance raised around a large bonfire at Emeline and Shippen streets, last night. A party of negroes had started quite an extensive fire and were enjoying themselves thereat very hugely, when a gang of irrepressible white men came down upon them like the wolves on the fold, and endeavored to take the fire by assault. For a few minutes the stones, bricks, and clubs were freely used, when the police made a general scattering of the combatants, and arrested Michael Forrest, John Willey, and John Devenney, of the white party, for riotous conduct. They had a hearing before Alderman Lutz, and were each held in $300 to appear at Court.

A FEROCIOUS MAN.—A. R. Snyder, who is said to have announced himself as a deadly enemy of the descendants of Ham, was arrested on Monday afternoon near Third and Church streets, for carrying concealed deadly weapons. He was talking in a very excited and disorderly manner of the fearful doings he was going to inflict upon the black population and their friends. After his arrest a revolver was found on his person, and also strong letters of recommendation from prominent politicians for a position in the Custom House. He was held in $1000 by Alderman Godson to answer.

PROPERTY RECOVERED.—The rope and other property which was found in the possession of John Sullivan yesterday morning and conveyed to the Second District Station House, has been identified by the owners and removed. The rope, rigging, etc., was stolen from the first wharf below the Point House. The brass-work was stolen from the factory of Lex & Co., Gloucester, N. J. The thief had effected an entrance in the rear of the factory, and had removed the light brass-work from the engines.

FOURTH WARD.—In this ward matters are at present in a state of great uncertainty. It is alleged that the Republican inspectors appointed to conduct the election were ejected from the room where the votes were being received, in every Division except the Eighth, in this Division the Republican Inspectors were permitted to officiate, and the result was a reduction of 200 in the old Democratic majority. It is probable that the vote in nearly all the other divisions will be rejected.

FOUND DEAD.—The body of an unknown white man was found in the culvert at the Almshouse. The Coroner will hold an inquest on the body.

LEGISLATIVE.—In the Thirteenth District, Mike Mullin, Democrat, is elected.

In the Fourteenth District, W. M. Worrall, Republican, is chosen.

SEVENTEENTH LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT—Edward S. Lee, Republican, has been elected in this District.

WORTHY OF NOTICE.—Some of our citizens have had the impression that delays and little difficulties are necessarily experienced in preparing and collecting claims on Life Insurance Companies. Such may have been the case in some instances, with some companies. That the North America Life Insurance Company is prompt, just, and honorable, and not at all disposed to take advantage of unfortunate circumstances or slight technical errors, is clearly shown by the following:—A little more than a year since a gentleman insured for five thousand dollars in the Philadelphia Branch of this Office, and shortly afterwards sailed from New York for Calcutta, as master of a ship; having touched at various ports, and having left the first ship for command of another, at Melbourne, Australia, and having spent a few weeks at Calcutta, he sailed again, suffering from a slight illness, and died at sea and among strangers, when only two weeks out. Though only one of the four usual certificates could be obtained under the circumstances, yet the death was simply proved in another way, and the claim was accepted, and the Company's General Agent, Mr. Evans, immediately deposited $5000 at Jay Cooke's to the account of the widow; no attorney was employed, and all the expense incurred was one dollar.

FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.
Caleb N. Taylor's Majority.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.]

DOYLESTOWN, October 10.—A close canvass of the vote of the entire District gives Caleb N. Taylor, Republican, for Congress, over Ross, Democrat, a majority of 502, which is a clear gain on the previous election.

The Baltimore Election.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.]

BALTIMORE, October 10.—All is going quietly, none of the fifteen thousand non-registered voters attempting to vote. There are four hundred extra police in service. All drinking houses are closed, by order of the Police Commissioners. There is no doubt, from present indications, that the Unconditional Union party will have a large majority. There is much rejoicing over the Union triumph in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and other States. The Conservatives are greatly dispirited, and some are inclined to change front, and abandon Copperheadism.

BALTIMORE, October 10.—The election is proceeding quietly, and the voting is confined entirely to the old registration list.

Canada.

TORONTO, C. W., October 10.—The party of Royal engineers that lately arrived here are now inspecting the country, to decide on the possibility of erecting fortifications.

The 61st British Regulars had no sooner disembarked at Quebec, than orders were received to send them immediately to Bermuda.

A Russian Commission is here examining the working of the municipal institutions in Canada.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, October 10.—The steamer Manhattan, from Vera Cruz on the 30th ult., via Havana on the 5th inst., has arrived at this port.

It was reported that Maximilian had taken a strong stand in relation to retaining his empire in Mexico, that French money was on its way to him, and that the French troops will remain to support him.

Markets by Telegraph.

NEW YORK, October 10.—Cotton firm at 38@40c. Flour has declined 10@20c; sales of 8000 barrels at $7 90@13 75 for State; Western, $7 90@11; Southern, $11·90@16·25. Wheat 2@3c. lower; sales of 7000 bushels old Milwaukee, $1 70. Corn quiet; sales unimportant. Beef steady. Pork firm; 1800 bbls. Mess at $33 10. Lard firm. Whisky steady.

Stocks are higher. Chicago and Rock Island, 107½; Cumberland preferred, 57½; Illinois Central, 98½; do. bonds, 103; Michigan Southern, 89; New York Central, 115½; Penn Coal, 55; Reading, 116½; Canton, 55; Virginia 6s, 69½; Missouri 6s, 81½; Sr o Railroad, 84½; Western Union Telegraph Company, 55½; Treasury 7·30s, 106½; 5·20s, 113½; Coupon 6s, 112½; Gold, 150¾.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

United States Circuit Court—Judge Cadwalader.—The Marine Bank of Chicago vs. Peter Wright & Son. An action to recover an amount overpaid by plaintiffs on a draft from defendants. On trial.

District Court—Judge Stroud.—James B. Ferver, et al. vs. John Thompson. Feigned issue. Before reported. Jury out.

Daniel B. Canfield vs. Ezra Conklin and George H. Levis. An action on a due bill. Verdict for plaintiff, $1550 25.

James L. Delaplaine, et al. vs. Charles Town. An action on a promissory note. On trial.

Latest Election Returns.

THE PENNSYLVANIA ELECTIONS.

LAWRENCE COUNTY.

PITTSBURG, October 10 P. M.—Lawrence County gives a Union majority of 2063. All the districts are heard from, and Covode, Republican, is certainly elected by about 350 majority.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY.

The county gives a Democratic majority of about 1000.

FAYETTE COUNTY.

Fayette County gives about 900 Democratic majority.

INDIANA COUNTY.

Covode has a majority of 2250 in Indiana County, which overcomes the Democratic majorities in Westmoreland and Fayette.

Venango County.

TIONESTA, October 10.—Geary's vote in this town is 76, and Clymer's 51. Finney (Rep.), for Congress (Twentieth Congressional District), has 81, and McCalmont (Dem.), 51—a Democratic gain of 22 over the Auditor-General's vote of last year.

Election Returns from Ohio.

CINCINNATI, October 10—2 P. M.—The total vote in this city yesterday foots up over 29,000, which exceeds by over 3000 any previous vote cast here.

Eggleston, Republican, in the First District, has 900 majority, and Hayes, Republican, in the Second District, 2600. The vote for or against the purchase of the Gas Works by the city was overwhelmingly in favor of the purchase.

The Union majority in Ohio is 50,000.

Vermont Items.

BINGHAMPTON, Vt., October 10.—The grand jury, at the session of the Court of Oyer and Terminer sitting here last week, indicted for arson Doctors Jonathan, Edward Turner, and Thomas Jefferson Gardiner, Superintendent and assistant physicians of the State Inebriate Asylum, for setting fire to

CLEOPATRA.

Her mouth is fragrant as a vine,
A vine with birds in all its boughs;
Serpent and scarab for a sign
Between the beauty of her brows
And the amorous deep lids divine.

Her great curled hair makes luminous
Her cheeks, her lifted throat and chin.
Shall she not have the hearts of us
To shatter, and the loves therein
To shed between her fingers thus?

Shall rumed broken strays of light,
Pearl after pearl she sheds them through
Her long sweet sleepy fingers, white
As any pearl's heart veined with blue,
And soft as dew on a soft night.

As if the very eyes of love
Shone through her shutting lids, and stole
The slow looks of a snake or dove;
As if her lips absorbed the whole
Of love, her soul the soul thereof.

Lost, all the lordly pearls that were
Wrung from the sea's heart, from the green
Coasts of the Indian gulf-river;
Lost, all the loves of the world—so keen
Towards this queen for love of her.

You see against her throat the small
Sharp glittering shadows of them shake;
And through her hair the imperial
Curled likeness of the river-snake,
Whose bite shall make an end of all.

Through the scales sheathing him like wings,
Through hieroglyphs of gold and gem,
The strong sense of her beauty stings,
Like a keen pulse of love in them,
A running flame through all his rings.

Under those low large lids of hers
She hath the histories of all time;
The fruit of foliage-stricken years;
The old seasons with their heavy chime
That leaves its rhyme in the world's ears.

She sees the heart of death made bare,
The ravelled riddle of the skies,
The faces faded that were fair,
The mouths made speechless that were wise,
The hollow eyes and dusty hair;

The shape and shadow of mystic things,
Things that fate fashions or forbids;
The staff of time-forgotten kings,
Whose names falls on the Pyramids,
Their coffin-lids and grave-clothings;

Dank dregs, the scum of pool or clod,
God-spawn of lizard-rooted clans,
And those dog-headed hulks that trod
Swart necks of the old Egyptians,
Raw draughts of man's beginning God;

The poised hawk quivering ere he smote,
With plume-like gems on breast and back;
The asps and water-worms afloat
Between the rash-flowers moist and slack,
The cat's warm black bright rising throat.

The purple days of drouth expand
Like a scroll opened out again:
The molten heaven drier than sand,
The hot red heaven without rain
Sheds iron pain on the empty land.

All Egypt aches in the sun's sight;
The lips of men are harsh for drouth,
The fierce air leaves their cheeks burnt white,
Charred by the bitter blowing south,
Whose dusty mouth is sharp to bite.

All this she dreams of, and her eyes
Are wrought after the sense hereof.
There is no heart in her for sighs;
The face of her is more than love—
A name above the Ptolemies.

Her great grave beauty covers her
As that sleek spoil beneath her feet
Clothed once the anointed soothsayer;
The hallowing is gone forth from it
Now, made unmeet for priests to wear.

She treads on [illegible] gods and god-like things,
[illegible]ste and fear and life and death.
Do hate that cleaves and love that clings.
All that is brought forth of man's breath
And perisheth with what it brings.

She holds her mitre close, her lips
Hold fast the key of things to be;
Actium, and sound of war that dips
Down the blown valleys of the sea,
For sails that flee, and storms of ships;

The laughing red sweet mouth of wine
At ending of life's festival;
That spice of cerecloths, and the fine
White bitter dust funereal
Sprinkled on all things for a sign;

His face, who was and was not he,
In whom, alive, her life abode;
The end, when she gained heart to see
Those ways of death wherein she trod,
Goddess by god, with Antony.

The Toy Business in this Country.

The manufacture of toys and "playthings," until within a few years, has been almost wholly confined to Europe. The Germans and Swiss have furnished the rising generation with the most of these necessary adjuncts to the pleasures of childhood. But lately the facilities of the Patent Office have stimulated production in this direction, and now our most amusing toys are those of American manufacture. And it is a profitable direction for inventive genius.

Everybody has seen the comical dancing Ethiopian, cruelly impaled upon a wire, and forced to respond, with every joint in his supple body, to the rattle of the fingers on his pivoted platform. This ridiculous device, being patented, has brought its proprietor a fortune. Then there is the crowing cock, his intestines a tin whistle, able to excite the envy of the monarch of the barnyard by his clear, shrill, and natural challenge. This, also, is a paying investment. The Dervishes and Zouaves, fantastically dressed, suspended by an elastic cord, perform feats of leaping which put to shame the Buislays and Hanlons. On the same principle is the return ball, which, like the Australian boomerang, comes back to the hand that projected it. A top of thin metal, hollow, and gaily lacquered, when started by means of the coiled spring in the handle, will continue its revolutions for ten minutes at a stretch.

The flying top is a good illustration of the propeller screw. Released from the shaft on which it is made to revolve, it flies whirling at an angle through the air until its momentum is lost, when it comes back, returning to the operator for a new start. We saw the other day a whistle, a mere gland of kid or thin leather, of a crescent form, holding, stretched between the two horns, a thin membrane, by the vibrations of which, added by the operator's tongue, a great variety of sounds can be produced. The grunt and squeal of the pig, the warbling of the canary, the whistling of a quail, the piping of the curlew, and many other calls of animated nature, can be perfectly reproduced. This is a useful implement for the sportsman, and affords unlimited delight to incipient manhood.

Almost all these can be used as illustrations of natural laws. Philosophy may yet be taught in our schools by toys. The wonderful resemblance to life of our American toys in many instances makes a broad distinction between them and those heretofore furnished from Europe. These last are usually caricatures, and are misleading to the young mind, which receives ideas through objects, and not through words mainly. Take our rubber toys. Some of them are worthy to rank with the productions of the artist. They are marvels of beauty and natural expression. The dolls made here of this material do not wear that appearance of corpse-like waxiness, or inanity, which the traditional doll from time immemorial has borne. They are pleasing to look at and wonderful in endurance. Some by hidden machinery can walk, others cry and move their eyes, but none are hideous and repulsive in expression.

This toy business may be considered by some as unworthy of notice by scientific journalists; but as we are more or less educated by our surroundings, and as the toys of the child are a prolific source of ideas which will cling to him through life, it is important that they do not convey false impressions. These improvements in our children's playthings are additional helps towards their education, and while their projectors realize fortunes from their introduction, young humanity and the world at large are pleased and benefited.—Scientific American.

INSTRUCTION.

PARDEE SCIENTIFIC COURSE IN LAFAYETTE COLLEGE.

In addition to the general Course of Instruction in this Department, designed to lay a substantial basis of knowledge and scholarly culture, students can pursue those branches which are essentially practical and technical, viz.:—

ENGINEERING—Civil, Topographical, and Mechanical; MINING and METALLURGY; ARCHITECTURE, and the application of Chemistry to AGRICULTURE and the ARTS.

There is also afforded an opportunity for special study of TRADE and COMMERCE; of MODERN LANGUAGES and PHILOLOGY, and of the HISTORY and INSTITUTIONS of our country.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE PICTORIAL BOOK OF ANECDOTES AND INCIDENTS OF THE REBELLION: Heroic, Patriotic, Romantic, Humorous, and Tragical.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, and will not get embodied in romance and poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun the pathos, of the war.

This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 300 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of the art. Many of them are set into the body of the text, after the popular style of Lossing's Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution. The book's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, scout, bivouac, siege, and battle-field adventures; thrilling feats or bravery, wit, drollery, comical and ludicrous adventures, etc., etc., etc.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history are skilfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

This work sells itself. The people are tired of dry details and partisan works, and want something humorous, romantic, and startling. Our agents are making from $100 to $200 per month, clear of all expenses. Send for circulars, giving full particulars, and see our terms and proof of the above assertion.

85,

Before consenting to this Agency, we have made a careful examination of the merits of these Bonds, by sending Wm. Milnor Roberts, and others, to report upon the condition and prospects of the Railroad. Their report is on file at our office, and is highly satisfactory. We do not hesitate to recommend these Bonds as being a first-class security, and a most safe and judicious investment.

The above Bonds are rapidly passing out of our hands, and as we expect to raise the price shortly, we advise all who desire them to call promptly

All information cheerfully given.

WHISKY, BRANDY, WINE, ETC.

CHESNUT GROVE WHISKY.

No. 225 North THIRD Street.

If anything was wanted to prove the absolute purity of this Whisky, the following certificates should do it. There is no alcoholic stimulant known commanding such recommendation from such high sources:—

PHILADELPHIA, September 3, 1866.

We have carefully tested the sample of CHESNUT GROVE WHISKY which you send us, and find that it contains NONE OF THE POISONOUS SUBSTANCE known as FUSIL OIL, which is the characteristic and injurious ingredient of the whiskies in general use.

BOOTH, GARRETT & CAMAC,
Analytical Chemists

NEW YORK, September 3, 1866.

I have analyzed a sample of CHESNUT GROVE WHISKY received from Mr Charles Wharton, Jr., of Philadelphia: and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely FREE FROM POISONOUS OR DELETERIOUS substances. It is an unusually pure and fine-flavored quality of whisky.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D.,
Analytical Chemist

BOSTON, March 7, 1859

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of CHESNUT GROVE WHISKY, which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and perfectly pure as unadulterated. The fine flavor of this whisky is derived from the grain used in manufacturing it.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D.,
State Assayer, No. 16 Boylston street.

In recommending this soap, we feel confident that nothing we can say will be more pointed than the following flattering testimonials from establishments generally known to the public:—

Messrs. J. B Dobbins & Co.—Gentlemen:—We have tested your Electric Soap, and are happy to say it gives entire satisfaction. For many purposes it surpasses any other Soap we have ever used.

Very truly yours,
J. E. KINGSLEY & CO.,
Proprietors of the Continental Hotel.
Philadelphia, August 23, 1865.

PHILADELPHIA ALMSHOUSE, August 25, 1865.

Messrs. J. B. Dobbins & Co.—Gents:—We have tried to economize in our laundry work at this institution, have bought materials, and made our own soap; but being induced to try your Electric Soap, have to report our work done better, with less labor, and a saving of thirty per cent. in the cost of soap.

We manufacture our own woollen blankets, and have never been able to cleanse the wool so efficiently, and at so little cost, as when using your soap.

The most difficult washing in our hospital can be done better and with less expense with your soap, than any we have ever made or bought.

Respectfully, J. W. MALONE.
Superintendent of Mechanics at Philadelphia Almshouse.

OFFICE OF THE PRESTON STEAM LAUNDRY CO.,
No. 1520 S. Ninth street, below Dickerson.
PHILADELPHIA, July 24, 1865.

Messrs. J. B. Dobbins & Co.:—Having used your Electric Soap in various departments of our extensive laundry, we find it very satisfactory.

It saves much time and labor, cleansing effectually, leaving the goods in splendid order, and at less cost than soaps we have formerly used.

We have found nothing equal to it for extracting grease spots from carpets and woollen clothing.

HENRY M. BOWEN, Superintendent.
C. FRANK COBB, Secretary and Treasurer.

FRANK A. SHUTE, Proprietor of the Quaker City Laundry, says that he cannot praise it too highly.

Mrs. C. HARTMAN, No 1229 Marshall street,
Says that the time and labor of washing is so much reduced by the use of this soap as to excite astonishment.

Rev. E. I. D. PEPPER
Says his family are perfectly delighted with it.

It is also very highly recommended by

ALL ARE WASHED

IN A SUPERIOR MANNER

WITH VERY LITTLE LABOR,

And in One-Fourth of the Time

USUALLY REQUIRED.

Woollens do not shrink when washed with this Soap, and Dresses can be washed without being ripped apart. Fast colors are made bright and clear, and it is invaluable for cleansing Paint, Oil Cloths, etc. There is

GREAT ECONOMY IN THE USE OF THIS SOAP,

As the Clothes are not worn out by the use of Washing Machines, and the time and labor saved is worth more than the entire cost of the Soap. The materials used in the manufacture of this Soap are all of the finest quality, unadulterated, and is made by a very superior process, having cleansing properties that will be found most astonishing; and at the same time it will be found pleasant to the hands, as it tends to make them soft and smooth. A single trial will satisfy any person that this Soap should be in every family.

It is used by cutting into small shavings, and dissolving in hot water; then soaking the Clothes five to ten minutes; then a little hand rubbing will make them as clean as hours of hard machine rubbing would do with ordinary Soap.

For cleaning Paint use a sponge or cloth saturated with the solution. It will leave the Paint bright and uninjured. The repeated use of it on painted wood tends to make it glossy.
